

CONTENTS

Teacher's Introduction iii

Unit 1: College Exploration 1

SESSION	SESSION OBJECTIVE	ACADEMIC CONNECTION	PAGE
101	College: The Facts	Students will understand the financial benefits of attending college.	MATH Students will use cost-of-living data to create a balanced budget for a recent college graduate with a given starting salary.	3
102	Choosing a Career Path	Students will understand how college will prepare them for a career.	WRITING Students will write a journal entry reflecting on how their personalities and interests will affect their career decisions.	15
103	Colleges that are Right for Me	Students will understand the differences between various college programs.	READING Students will compare and contrast various programs offered at a range of universities and decide which type of college might best fit their career goals.	25

Unit 2: College Application 37

201	The Application	Students will understand the steps of the college application process.	READING Students will explore the different aspects of college applications and prepare their own schedules for completing the application process.	39
202	Writing a Personal Statement	Students will understand the importance of the personal statement in the college application process.	WRITING Students will brainstorm ideas and practice proofreading skills for use on college application essays.	51
203	Paying for College	Students will understand the numerous ways to pay for college (e.g., loans, scholarships, grants).	MATH Students will analyze line graphs and pie charts and calculate the true financial cost of college for students in a variety of situations.	63

CLOSING: College Life 75

CLOSING	What to Expect	Students will understand how to manage their time and money successfully during their college years.	Students will analyze sample course schedules and write a letter to their future selves stating college goals.	77
----------------	-----------------------	--	--	----

Teacher's Guide to Financial Aid 84